Falcon Physician Reviews --- Student Acknowledgement

Room changes: Room changes are not allowed without the direct permission of the staff of FALCON Physician Reviews. We will assist you in any way we can with your rooming needs, however, the hotel and FALCON Physician Reviews will not be responsible for room charges due to students changing rooms or moving into private rooms without the specific authorization from FALCON Physician Reviews.

Conduct: FALCON Physician Reviews is an intense time of study and preparation for the USMLE. Students who enroll in our program expend a significant amount of time and finances to ensure that they do well on the USMLE. Any behavior by any student which would detract from the ability of other to study and prepare will not be tolerated. Behavior such as pranks, sexual harassment and fraternity style joking will not be tolerated. Students who participate in behavior which hinders their peers from studying will be expelled from the program without recourse. In addition, personal behavior which makes it difficult or impossible for your roommate to sleep or study will not be tolerated.

Room charges: Room charges such as those for long distance telephone, premium TV, room service, or other charges are the direct responsibility of the student. Each student must ensure that their private room charges are paid to the hotel in a timely manner. Students are urged to ensure that telephone calls made from their room are local prior to making those calls.
